This seminar day is designed to encourage people who may want to test the waters about genealogical speaking, who want to gain experience talking in front of groups, who regularly speak/teach but want to try out a new presentation, as well as people who simply have a passion they want to share with others.

Sessions will be one hour in length, including Q & A.

May submit proposals for more than one session

Selected presenters will be paid $100.00 per hour presentation.

People who submit do not have to be GGS members.

Submit proposals to Maggie Thomas, Education Director: programs@gagensociety.org before midnight October 15, 2018.
